

Our school is going to organise Cambridge English exams for children and students in spring. Your children will have a chance to take a YLE (Starters, Movers, Flyers level) KET or PET for Schools (more info below). The exams will take place in the Ostrčilova school building. The children will then get a certificate as an internationally recognised language qualification. Cambridge exams are valued around the world and, with a Cambridge English qualification, children can access the best study, work and life opportunities.

All exams will be held at the building of Cloverleaf Language school, address: Dolní 31, Ostrava-Zábřeh. As a result of the exam, the children receive Cambridge certificates. These certificates prove their English skills. This certificate will show them what they already know in English and inspire them to continue studying English language. The certificates are valid for unlimited period of time therefore it is possible to use them for further studies in high school or abroad.

The maximum score is five shields for each part of the test.

The YLE exam is a great way to celebrate children's achievements, build their confidence and reward their individual ability.

YLE exams prices:

YLE Starters: 1 190,- CZK, YLE Movers: 1.390,- CZK, YLE Flyers: 1.490,- CZK

KET/PET for Schools exams

If children learn English when they are young, they will have a significant advantage when they leave school. A certificate from University of Cambridge will help your child stand out from the crowd and access the best study, work and life opportunities.

KET/PET for Schools exams are designed and developed to motivate students at primary and secondary school. They cover all four language skills – reading, writing, listening and speaking. They bring learning to life, covering topics that your child is familiar with and developing the skills needed to:

improve in English understand books, television, films, songs, the internet and other media in English

make friends around the world

travel the world

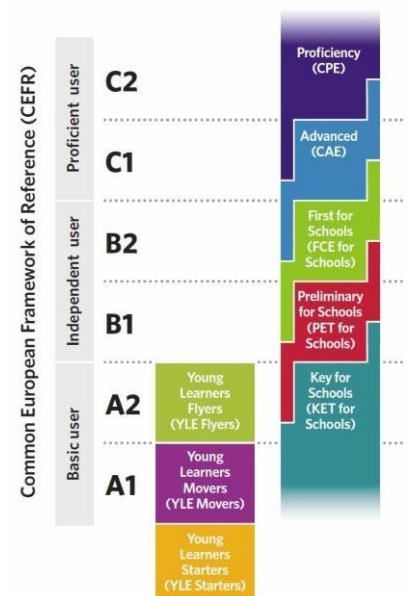

study at university or college, either at home or in another country get a job and use English at work, either in your country or abroad.

KET/PET for Schools exams are highly recognised worldwide and their certificates are valid for life (see the complete list of institutions recognising Cambridge exams at <http://www.cambridgeenglish.org/why-cambridge-english/global-recognition/index.aspx?s=1>).

Cambridge English

Cambridge English: Key for Schools is a basic level qualification that shows a student can use English to communicate in simple situations.

What level is Cambridge English: Key for Schools?

Cambridge English: Key for Schools is set at Level A2 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages \(CEFR\). Reaching this level means a student can:

- understand and use basic phrases and expressions
- introduce themselves and answer basic questions about their personal details

interact with English speakers who talk slowly and clearly write short, simple notes.

Cambridge English: Key for Schools is a version of Cambridge English: Key that is particularly targeted at the interests and experiences of school children. It is at the same level as Cambridge English: Key and follows exactly the same format.

Cambridge English: Key for Schools is based on familiar topics and situations so it:

- suits the interests of students
- increases their motivation to learn English
- gives them confidence to use their language skills to move on to further qualifications.

Results and Certificates

Cambridge English: Key for Schools gives detailed, informative results. All students receive a Statement of Results. If a student's performance ranges between CEFR Levels B1 and A1, they will also receive a certificate. Students will receive the same certificate as candidates who take Cambridge English: Key.

KET for schools exam price: 2. 690,- CZK

Cambridge English: Preliminary for Schools, also known as Preliminary English Test (PET) for Schools, shows that a student can understand and communicate using everyday written and spoken English.

What level is Cambridge English: Preliminary for Schools?

Cambridge English: Preliminary for Schools is set at Level B1 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages \(CEFR\). Reaching this level means a student can:

- understand the main points of straightforward instructions or public announcements
- deal with everyday situations when going out
- ask simple questions and take part in factual conversations with friends, family and at school
- write letters or make notes on familiar matters.

Cambridge English: Preliminary for Schools is a version of Cambridge English: Preliminary that is particularly targeted at the interests and experiences of school children. It is at the same level as Cambridge English: Preliminary and follows exactly the same format.

Cambridge English: Preliminary for Schools is based on familiar topics and situations so it:

- suits the interests of students
- increases their motivation to learn English
- gives them confidence to use their language skills to move on to further qualifications.

Results and Certificates

The students will receive a separate score for each of the four skills (reading, writing, listening and speaking) and use of English, giving them a clear understanding of your performance. These five scores are averaged to give an overall result for the exam. You will also be given a grade and Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR) level.

Cambridge English: Preliminary for Schools gives detailed, informative results. All students receive a Statement of Results. If a student's performance ranges between CEFR Levels B2 and A2, they will also receive a certificate. Students will receive the same certificate as candidates who take Cambridge English: Preliminary.

PET for schools exam price: 2.790,- CZK

B2 First

Cambridge English: B2 First for Schools, also known as First English Test (FCE) for Schools, shows that a student can communicate easily and spontaneously in a clear and detailed manner. The student can handle communication in English on higher intermediate level.

What level is Cambridge English: First for Schools?

Cambridge English: First for Schools is set at Level B2 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages \(CEFR\). Reaching this level means a student can:

- Can understand the main ideas of complex text on both concrete and abstract topics, including technical discussions in their field of specialization.
- Can interact with a degree of fluency and spontaneity that makes regular interaction with native speakers quite possible without strain for either party.
- Can produce clear, detailed text on a wide range of subjects and explain a viewpoint on a topical issue giving the advantages and disadvantages of various options.

Cambridge English: First for Schools is a version of Cambridge English: First that is particularly targeted at the interests and experiences of school children. It is at the same level as Cambridge English: First and follows exactly the same format.

Cambridge English: First for Schools is based on familiar topics and situations so it:

- suits the interests of students
- increases their motivation to learn English
- gives them confidence to use their language skills to move on to further qualifications.
